FDL Studio Legale e Tributario opens the Eastern Europe desk with the entry of the new Of Counsel Zoya Ilyenka

FDL Studio Legale e Tributario announces the entry of the lawyer Zoya Ilyenka as Of Counsel. With the new entry, the firm further strengthens its international profile with the creation of a real Desk dedicated to Eastern European clients.

Zoya Ilyenka is a founding partner of the law firm North Legal S.L.P. of Barcelona and has over 10 years of experience. She specializes in foreign investments in Spain and cross-border litigation. She has extensive experience in creating and supporting investment projects and new foreign-invested companies in Spain. Zoya has assisted major international clients in entering the Spanish market, assisting them in choosing the best corporate structure, tax planning and in all legal aspects, including M&A and Joint Ventures.

Thanks to her knowledge of the Italian language, she assists and accompanies Italian clients in starting and managing their business in Spain and assists Spanish companies that wish to operate in Italy. Zoya regularly participates as a speaker and moderator at international conferences and is an active member of the IBA, where she has held various leadership positions in the Law Firm Management Committee.

Thanks to her knowledge of Eastern European markets and CIS languages, Zoya heads the firm's Eastern European Desk, accompanying Eastern European clients in establishing their businesses in Italy, as well as assisting Italian clients who wish settle in that region.

With the arrival of the new Of Counsel, the number of professionals in the Milan headquarter reaches 26 people. FDL further strengthens in the international field which has already been a main character of the firm, thanks to its memberships to the Alliuris network, of which the firm is one of the founding members and which last year celebrated 20 years of activity, and to the Primerus network.
